LEAD is a great fit for:

- First-time leaders who need to develop the necessary skills to be successful in their new role
- Experienced leaders looking to refine and grow their leadership skill set
- Emerging leaders to develop tools that will make them strong candidates for promotion

Our faculty members are demonstrated industry experts with focused knowledge and skill in their specific topic area, who all have a demonstrated background of organizational leadership and success.

LEAD is offered through the law firm of Keavney & Streger and the consulting firm EMSaegis.
